Attorneys for Plaintiff and Proposed Class

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JUAN ALCAZAR, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRIGGS & RILEY TRAVELWARE, LLC,
 a New York limited liability company; and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1. VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS
 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990, 42
 U.S.C. §12181
2. VIOLATIONS OF THE UNRUH CIVIL RIGHTS ACT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Juan Alcazar (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, brings this action based upon personal knowledge as to himself and his own acts, and as to all other matters upon information and belief, based upon, inter alia, the investigations of his attorneys.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff is a visually-impaired and legally blind person who requires screen-reading software to read website content using his computer. Plaintiff uses the terms “blind” or “visually-impaired” to refer to all people with visual impairments who meet the legal definition of blindness in that they have a visual acuity with correction of less than or equal to 20 x 200. Some blind people who meet this definition have limited vision. Others have no vision.

2. Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of those similarly situated persons (hereafter “Class Members”), brings this Class Action to secure redress against Defendant Briggs & Riley Travelware, LLC (“Defendant”) and DOES 1-10, for its failure to design, construct, maintain,

1 and operate its website to be fully and equally accessible to and independently usable by Plaintiff
2 and other blind or visually-impaired people. Defendant's denial of full and equal access to its 3 website, and therefore denial of its products and services offered thereby and in conjunction with 4 its physical locations, is a violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act
5 ("ADA") and California's Unruh Civil Rights Act ("UCRA").

6 3. Because Defendant's website, <https://www.briggs-riley.com/>, (the "Website" or 7 "Defendant's website"), is not fully or equally accessible to blind and visually-impaired
8 consumers in violation of the ADA, Plaintiff seeks a permanent injunction to cause a change in 9 Defendant's corporate policies, practices, and procedures so that Defendant's website will 10 become and remain accessible to blind and visually-impaired consumers.

11 THE PARTIES

12 4. Plaintiff, at all times relevant and as alleged herein, is a resident of the County of 13 San Mateo. Plaintiff is a legally blind, visually-impaired handicapped person, a member of a 14 protected class of individuals under the ADA pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12102(1)-(2), and the 15 regulations implementing the ADA set forth at 28 CFR §§ 36.101 et seq.

16 5. Defendant is a New York limited liability company, with its headquarters in 17 Hauppauge, New York. Defendant's servers for the website are in the United States. Defendant 18 conducts a large amount of its business in California and the United States as a whole. These 19 stores constitute places of public accommodation. Defendant's stores provide to the public
20 important goods and services. Defendant's website provides consumers with access to a wide 21 variety of high-quality luggage designed around real-world needs, backpacks, bags, and 22 accessories which are available online and in retail stores for purchase. Consumers can also access 23 information about retailers, sales, returns, repair options, corporate gifts, career opportunities, 24 affiliate programs, and additional online services.

25 6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names, identities, and capacities of each Defendant
26 sued herein as DOES 1 to 10. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to allege the true
27 names and capacities of DOES 1 to 10 if and when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, 28 and thereupon alleges, that each Defendant sued herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some

1 manner for the events and happenings alleged herein and that each Defendant sued herein as a
2 DOE proximately caused injuries and damages to Plaintiff as set forth below.

3 7. Defendant's stores are public accommodations within the definition of Title III of 4 the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7).

5 8. The Website, <https://www.briggs-riley.com/>, is a service, privilege, or advantage
6 of Defendant's services, products, and locations.

7 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8 9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims alleged in this 9 Complaint pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. §1332(d)(2)(A) because: (a) the 10 matter in controversy exceeds the sum of $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs; and (b) some 11 of the class members are citizens of a state (California) that is different from the state of 12 citizenship of Defendant (New York).

13 10. Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District. Defendant has been 14 and continues to commit the acts or omissions alleged herein in the Northern District of 15 California, which, has caused injury and violated rights prescribed by the ADA and UCRA to 16 Plaintiff, other blind, and other visually impaired-consumers. A substantial part of the acts and 17 omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in the Northern District of California.
18 Specifically, on several separate occasions, Plaintiff has been denied the full use and enjoyment
19 of the facilities, goods, and services of Defendant's website in San Mateo County. The access 20 barriers Plaintiff has encountered on Defendant's website have caused a denial of Plaintiff's full 21 and equal access multiple times in the past and now deter Plaintiff on a regular basis from 22 accessing Defendant's website. Similarly, the access barriers Plaintiff has encountered on 23 Defendant's website have impeded Plaintiff's full and equal enjoyment of goods and services
24 offered at Defendant's brick-and-mortar stores.

25 11. This Court also has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28
26 U.S.C. § 1331 and 42 U.S.C. § 12181, as Plaintiff's claims arise under Title III of the ADA, 42
27 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq., and 28 U.S.C. § 1332.
28

1 12. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it conducts and
2 continues to conduct a substantial and significant amount of business in the State of California,
3 County of San Mateo, and because Defendant's offending website is available across California.

4 13. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391
5 because Plaintiff resides in this District, Defendant conducts and continues to conduct a 6 substantial and significant amount of business in this District, Defendant is subject to personal 7 jurisdiction in this District, and a substantial portion of the conduct complained of herein occurred
8 in this District.

9 THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND THE INTERNET

10 14. The Internet has become a significant source of information, a portal and a tool for 11 conducting business, doing everyday activities such as shopping, learning, banking, researching, 12 as well as many other activities for sighted, blind and visually-impaired persons alike.

13 15. In today's tech-savvy world, blind and visually-impaired people have the ability to 14 access websites using keyboards in conjunction with screen access software that vocalizes the 15 visual information found on a computer screen. This technology is known as screen-reading
16 software. Screen-reading software is currently the only method a blind or visually-impaired
17 person may independently access the internet. Unless websites are designed to be read by screen-18 reading software, blind and visually-impaired persons are unable to fully access websites, and the 19 information, products and services contained thereon.

20 16. Blind and visually-impaired users of Windows operating system-enabled 21 computers and devices have several screen-reading software programs available to them. Some 22 of these programs are available for purchase and other programs are available without the user 23 having to purchase the program separately. Job Access With Speech, otherwise known as 24 "JAWS," is currently the most popular separately purchased and downloaded screen-reading
25 software program available for a Windows computer.

26 17. For screen-reading software to function, the information on a website must be 27 capable of being rendered into text. If the website content is not capable of being rendered into 28 text, the blind or visually-impaired user is unable to access the same content available to sighted users.

18. The international website standards organization, the World Wide Web Consortium known throughout the world as W3C, has published Success Criteria for version 2.0 of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines ("WCAG 2.0" hereinafter). WCAG 2.0 are well-established guidelines for making websites accessible to blind and visually-impaired people. These guidelines are adopted, implemented, and followed by most large business entities who want to ensure their websites are accessible to users of screen-reading software programs. Though WCAG 2.0 has not been formally adopted as the standard for making websites accessible, it is one of, if not the most, valuable resource for companies to operate, maintain, and provide a website that is accessible under the ADA to the public.

19. Within this context, the Ninth Circuit has recognized the viability of ADA claims against commercial website owners/operators with regard to the accessibility of such websites. Robles v. Domino's Pizza, LLC, Docket No. 17-55504 (9th Cir. Apr 13, 2017), Court Docket No. BL-66. This is in addition to the numerous courts that already recognized such application.

20. Each of Defendant's violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act is likewise a violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Indeed, the Unruh Civil Rights Act provides that any violation of the ADA constitutes a violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Cal. Civ. Code, § 51(f).

21. Further, Defendant's actions and inactions denied Plaintiff full and equal access to their accommodations, facilities, and services. A substantial motivating reason for Defendant to deny Plaintiff access was the perception of Plaintiff's disability. Defendant's denial of Plaintiff's accessibility was a substantial motivating reason for Defendant's conduct. Plaintiff was harmed due to Defendant's conduct. Defendant's actions and inactions were a substantial factor in causing the lack of access to Plaintiff. Unruh Civil Rights Act. Cal. Civ. Code, § 51.

22. Inaccessible or otherwise non-compliant websites pose significant access barriers to blind and visually-impaired persons. Common barriers encountered by blind and visually impaired persons include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. A text equivalent for every non-text element is not provided;
- b. Title frames with text are not provided for identification and navigation;
- c. Equivalent text is not provided when using scripts;

- d. Forms with the same information and functionality as for sighted persons are not provided;
- e. Information about the meaning and structure of content is not conveyed by more than the visual presentation of content;
- f. Text cannot be resized without assistive technology up to 200 percent without loss of content or functionality;
- g. If the content enforces a time limit, the user is not able to extend, adjust or disable it;
- h. Web pages do not have titles that describe the topic or purpose;
- i. The purpose of each link cannot be determined from the link text alone or from the link text and its programmatically determined link context;
- j. One or more keyboard operable user interface lacks a mode of operation where the keyboard focus indicator is discernible;
- k. The default human language of each web page cannot be programmatically determined;
- l. When a component receives focus, it may initiate a change in context;
- m. Changing the setting of a user interface component may automatically cause a change of context where the user has not been advised before using the component;
- n. Labels or instructions are not provided when content requires user input;
- o. In content which is implemented by using markup languages, elements do not have complete start and end tags, elements are not nested according to their specifications, elements may contain duplicate attributes and/or any IDs are not unique;
- p. Inaccessible Portable Document Format (PDFs); and
- q. The name and role of all User Interface elements cannot be programmatically determined; items that can be set by the user cannot be programmatically set; and/or notification of changes to these items is not available to user agents, including assistive technology.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23. Defendant offers the <https://www.briggs-riley.com/> website to the public. The website offers features which should allow all consumers to access the goods and services which Defendant offers in connection with its physical locations. The goods and services offered by Defendant's website include, but are not limited to the following, which allow consumers to access an assortment of high-quality luggage designed around real-world needs, backpacks, bags, accessories and additional products and services that are available for purchase online and in retail stores. Consumers can further access information about store and retailer locations, sales, repair options, corporate gifts, returns, affiliate programs, and career opportunities.

24. Based on information and belief, it is Defendant's policy and practice to deny Plaintiff and Class Members, along with other blind or visually-impaired users, access to Defendant's website and to therefore specifically deny the goods and services that are offered and integrated with Defendant's stores. Due to Defendant's failure and refusal to remove access barriers on its website, Plaintiff and other visually-impaired persons have been and are still being denied equal and full access to Defendant's stores and the assortment of high-quality luggage, backpacks, bags, accessories, and additional products and services that are offered to the public through Defendant's Website.

Defendant's Barriers on Unruh Civil Rights Act. Cal. Civ. Code, § 51(f) Deny Plaintiff and Class Members' Access

25. Plaintiff is a visually-impaired and legally blind person, who cannot use a computer without the assistance of screen-reading software. However, Plaintiff is a proficient user of the JAWS screen-reader as well as Mac's VoiceOver and both use it to access the internet. Plaintiff has visited <https://www.briggs-riley.com/> on several separate occasions using the JAWS and/or VoiceOver screen-readers.

26. During Plaintiff's several visits to Defendant's website, Plaintiff encountered multiple access barriers which denied Plaintiff full and equal access to the facilities, goods and services offered to the public and made available to the public on Defendant's website, and its prior iterations. Due to the widespread access barriers Plaintiff and Class Members encountered on Defendant's websites, Plaintiff and Class Members have been deterred, on a regular basis,

1 from accessing Defendant's website. Similarly, the access barriers Plaintiff has encountered on
2 Defendant's website have deterred Plaintiff and Class Members from visiting Defendant's brick-3 and-mortar stores.

4 27. While attempting to navigate Defendant's website, Plaintiff and Class Members 5 encountered multiple accessibility barriers for blind or visually-impaired people that include, but 6 are not limited to, the following:

- 7 a. Lack of Alternative Text ("alt-text"), or a text equivalent. Alt-text is invisible
8 code embedded beneath a graphic or image on a website that is read to a user
9 by a screen-reader. For graphics or images to be fully accessible for screen-
10 reader users, it requires that alt-text be coded with each graphic or image so 11 that screen-reading software can speak the alt-text to describe the graphic or 12 image where a sighted user would just see the graphic or image. Alt-text does 13 not change the visual presentation, but instead a text box shows when the 14 cursor hovers over the graphic or image. The lack of alt-text on graphics and 15 images prevents screen-readers from accurately vocalizing a description of the 16 image or graphic. As a result, Plaintiff and Class Members who are blind and 17 visually-impaired customers are unable to determine what high-quality 18 luggage, backpacks, bags, and accessories are available for purchase, find 19 Defendant's store locations, access information about returns, retailers, repair 20 options, sales, corporate gifts, affiliate programs, and career opportunities, or 21 complete any purchases;
- 22 b. Empty Links that contain No Text causing the function or purpose of the link 23 to not be presented to the user. This can introduce confusion for keyboard and 24 screen-reader users;
- 25 c. Redundant Links where adjacent links go to the same URL address which 26 results in additional navigation and repetition for keyboard and screen-reader 27 users; and
- 28 d. Linked Images missing alt-text, which causes problems if an image within a link does not contain any descriptive text and that image does not have alt-text.

1 A screen reader then has no content to present the user as to the function of the 2 link, including information or links for and contained in PDFs.

3 28. Recently in 2020, Plaintiff attempted to do business with Defendant on 4 Defendant's website. Plaintiff has visited prior iterations of the website, https://www.briggs-
5 riley.com/, and also encountered barriers to access on Defendant's website.

6 29. Despite past and recent attempts to do business with Defendant on its website, the 7 numerous access barriers contained on the website and encountered by Plaintiff, has denied
8 Plaintiff full and equal access to Defendant's website. Plaintiff and Class Members, as a result of 9 the barriers on Defendant's website, continue to be deterred on a regular basis from accessing 10 Defendant's website. Likewise, based on the numerous access barriers Plaintiff and Class 11 Members have been deterred and impeded from the full and equal enjoyment of goods and 12 services offered in Defendant's stores and from making purchases at such physical locations.

13 Defendant Must Remove Barriers to Its Website

14 30. Due to the inaccessibility of the Defendant's website, blind and visually-impaired
15 customers such as the Plaintiff who need screen-readers, cannot fully and equally use or enjoy
16 the facilities, and services the Defendant offers to the public on its website. The access barriers
17 the Plaintiff has encountered have caused a denial of Plaintiff's full and equal access in the past 18 and now deter Plaintiff on a regular basis from accessing the website.

19 31. These access barriers on Defendant's website have deterred Plaintiff from visiting 20 Defendant's physical locations and enjoying them equal to sighted individuals because: Plaintiff
21 was unable to find the location and hours of operation of Defendant's locations on its website, as 22 a result Plaintiff is prevented from visiting the locations, and is unable to view and purchase
23 products and/or services. Plaintiff and Class Members intend to visit the Defendant's locations in 24 the near future if Plaintiff and Class Members could access Defendant's website.

25 32. If the website was equally accessible to all, Plaintiff and Class Members could 26 independently navigate the website and complete a desired transaction, as sighted individuals do.

27 33. Plaintiff, through Plaintiff's attempts to use the website, has actual knowledge of 28 the access barriers that make these services inaccessible and independently unusable by blind and visually-impaired people.

34. Because simple compliance with WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1 would provide Plaintiff and Class Members who are visually-impaired consumers with equal access to the website, Plaintiff and Class Members allege that Defendant engaged in acts of intentional discrimination, including, but not limited to, the following policies or practices: constructing and maintaining a website that is inaccessible to visually-impaired individuals, including Plaintiff and Class Members; failing to construct and maintain a website that is sufficiently intuitive so as to be equally accessible to visually-impaired individuals, including Plaintiff and Class Members; and failing to take actions to correct these access barriers in the face of substantial harm and discrimination to blind and visually-impaired consumers, such as Plaintiff and Class Members, as a member of a protected class.

35. The Defendant uses standards, criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of discriminating or perpetuating the discrimination against others, as alleged herein.

36. The ADA expressly contemplates the injunctive relief that Plaintiff seeks in this action. In relevant part, the ADA requires:

In the case of violations of ... this title, injunctive relief shall include an order to alter facilities to make such facilities readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities Where appropriate, injunctive relief shall also include requiring the ... modification of a policy 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(2).

37. Because Defendant's website has never been equally accessible, and because Defendant lacks a corporate policy that is reasonably calculated to cause the Defendant's website to become and remain accessible, Plaintiff invokes 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(2) and seeks a permanent injunction requiring the Defendant to retain a qualified consultant acceptable to Plaintiff to assist Defendant to comply with WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1 guidelines for Defendant's website. The website must be accessible for individuals with disabilities who use desktop computers, laptops, tablets, and smartphones. Plaintiff and Class Members seek that this permanent injunction require Defendant to cooperate with the agreed-upon consultant to: train Defendant's employees and agents who develop the website on accessibility compliance under the WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1 guidelines; regularly check the accessibility of the website under the WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1 guidelines; regularly test user accessibility by blind or vision-impaired persons to ensure that the Defendant's website complies under the WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1

guidelines; and develop an accessibility policy that is clearly disclosed on the Defendant's website, with contact information for users to report accessibility-related problems and require that any third-party vendors who participate on the Defendant's website to be fully accessible to the disabled by conforming with WCAG 2.0/WCAG 2.1.

37. If Defendant's website were accessible, Plaintiff and Class Members could independently access information about store locations, hours, services offered, and services available for online purchase.

38. Although Defendant may currently have centralized policies regarding operating and maintaining Defendant's website, Defendant lacks a plan and policy reasonably calculated to make Defendant's website fully and equally accessible to, and independently usable by, blind and other visually-impaired consumers.

39. Defendant has, upon information and belief, invested substantial sums in developing and maintaining Defendant's website to which Defendant has generated significant revenue from Defendant's website. These amounts are far greater than the associated cost of making Defendant's website equally accessible to visually impaired customers. Plaintiff has also visited prior iterations of the Defendant's website, <https://www.briggs-riley.com/>, and also encountered such barriers.

40. Without injunctive relief, Plaintiff and Class Members will continue to be unable to independently use Defendant's website, violating their rights.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

41. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, seeks to certify a nationwide class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and 23(b)(2) (b)(3), the Nationwide class is initially defined as follows:

all legally blind individuals who have attempted to access Defendant's website by the use of a screen reading software during the applicable limitations period up to and including final judgment in this action.

42. The California class is initially defined as follows:

all legally blind individuals in the State of California who have attempted to access Defendant's website by the use of a screen reading software during the applicable limitations period up to and including final judgment in this action.

43. Excluded from each of the above Classes is Defendant, including any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest, is a parent or subsidiary, or which is controlled by Defendant, as well as the officers, directors, affiliates, legal representatives, heirs, predecessors, successors, and assigns of Defendant. Also excluded are the judge and the court personnel in this case and any members of their immediate families. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend the Class definitions if discovery and further investigation reveal that the Classes should be expanded or otherwise modified.

44. Numerosity. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action against Defendant under Rules 23(b)(1)(B) and 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. While the exact number and identities of other Class Members are unknown to Plaintiff at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are hundreds of thousands of Members in the Class. Based on the number of customers who have visited Defendant's California stores, it is estimated that the Class is composed of more than 10,000 persons. Furthermore, even if subclasses need to be created for these consumers, it is estimated that each subclass would have thousands of Members. The Members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all Members is impracticable and the disposition of their claims in a class action rather than in individual actions will benefit the parties and the courts.

45. Typicality: Plaintiff and Class Members' claims are typical of the claims of the Members of the Class as all Members of the Class are similarly affected by Defendant's wrongful conduct, as detailed herein.

46. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Members of the Class in that they have no interests antagonistic to those of the other Members of the Class. Plaintiff has retained experienced and competent counsel.

47. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Since the damages sustained by individual Class Members may be relatively small the expense and burden of individual litigation makes it impracticable for the Members of the Class to individually seek redress for the wrongful conduct alleged herein. Furthermore, the adjudication of this controversy through a class action will avoid the potentially inconsistent and conflicting adjudications of the claims asserted herein. There will

1 be no difficulty in the management of this action as a class action. If Class treatment of these 2 claims were not available, Defendant would likely unfairly receive thousands of dollars or more
 3 in improper revenue.

4 48. Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and fact exist as to 5 all Members of the Class and predominate over any questions solely affecting individual 6 Members of the Class. Among the common questions of law and fact applicable to the Class are:

- 7 i. Whether Defendant's website, <https://www.briggs-riley.com/>, is 8 inaccessible to the visually-impaired who use screen reading software to 9 access internet websites;
- 10 ii. Whether Plaintiff and Class Members have been unable to access 11 <https://www.briggs-riley.com/> through the use of screen reading software;
- 12 iii. Whether the deficiencies in Defendant's website violate the Americans 13 with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.;
- 14 iv. Whether the deficiencies in Defendant's website violate the California
 15 Unruh Civil Rights Act, California Civil Code § 51 et seq.;
- 16 v. Whether, and to what extent, injunctive relief should be imposed on 17 Defendant to make <https://www.briggs-riley.com/> readily accessible to and 18 usable by visually-impaired individuals;
- 19 vi. Whether Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to recover statutory 20 damages with respect to Defendant's wrongful conduct; and
- 21 vii. Whether further legal and/or equitable relief should be granted by the Court 22 in this action.

23 49. The class is readily definable, and prosecution of this action as a Class action will 24 reduce the possibility of repetitious litigation. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty which will be 25 encountered in the management of this litigation which would preclude their maintenance of this 26 matter as a Class action.

27 50. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action for injunctive relief or equitable 28 relief pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2) are met as Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class. Thereby, making appropriate final injunctive or equitable relief

1 with respect to the Class as a whole.

2 51. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action for injunctive relief or equitable
3 relief pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) are met as questions of law or fact common to the Class
4 predominate over any questions affecting only individual Members and a class action is superior
5 to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.

6 52. The prosecution of separate actions by Members of the Class would create a risk
7 of establishing inconsistent rulings and/or incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant.
8 Additionally, individual actions may be dispositive of the interest of all Members of the Class,
9 although certain Class Members are not parties to such actions.

10 53. Defendant's conduct is generally applicable to the Class as a whole and Plaintiff
11 seek, inter alia, equitable remedies with respect to the Class as a whole. As such, Defendant's
12 systematic policies and practices make declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole 13 appropriate.

14 COUNT I

15 Violations of the Americans With Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 *et seq.

16 (On Behalf of Plaintiff, the Nationwide Class and the California Class)

17 54. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation
18 contained in paragraphs 1 through 53, inclusive, of this Complaint as if set forth fully herein.

19 55. Section 302(a) of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq., provides: "No
20 individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment
21 of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations of any place of public
22 accommodation by any person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public 23 accommodation" 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

24 56. Under Section 302(b)(2) of Title III of the ADA, unlawful discrimination also 25 includes, among other things: "a failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices,
26 or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities,
27 privileges, advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can 28 demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations" and "a failure to take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated, or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation being offered or would result in an undue burden” 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii). “A public accommodation shall take those steps that may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated, or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the public accommodation can demonstrate that taking those steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations being offered or would result in an undue burden, i.e., significant difficulty or expense” 28 C.F.R. § 36.303(a). In order to be effective, auxiliary aids and services must be provided in accessible formats, in a timely manner, and in such a way as to protect the privacy and independence of the individual with a disability” 28 C.F.R. § 36.303(c)(1)(ii).

57. Defendant’s store locations are “public accommodations” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. Defendant generates millions of dollars in revenue from the sale of its amenities and services, privileges, advantages, and accommodations in California through its locations, related services, privileges, advantages, accommodations, and its Website, <https://www.briggs-riley.com/>, is a service, privilege, advantage, and accommodation provided by Defendant that is inaccessible to customers who are visually-impaired like Plaintiff.
